

Junkspace

---

Gyuri Nam

Rem Koolhaas

-Dutch architect

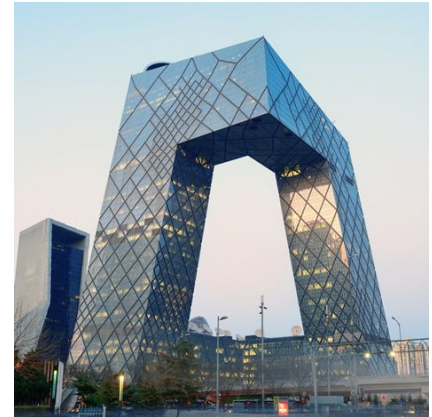

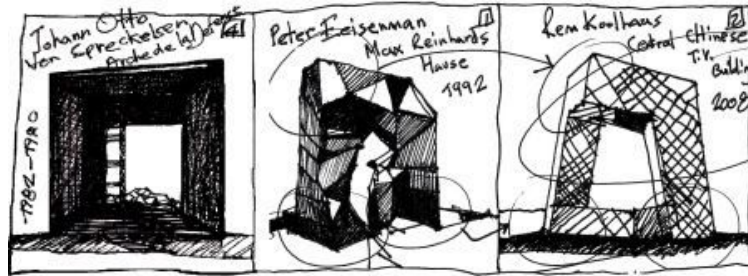

-November 17, 1944 Rotterdam, Netherlands

-Many great acclaimed writings

-Architectural Association School of Architecture in London and at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY.

-Founding partner of OMA

-Pritzker Architecture Prize (2000)

```
graph LR; A((What is Junkspace)) --- B((Themes)); B --- C((Examples)); C --- D((Discussions));
```

What is Junkspace

Themes

Examples

Discussions

What is junkspace?

Junk- old discarded materials that are considered useless or serve little to no value.

“If space-junk is the human debris that litters the universe, junk-space is the residue that mankind leaves on the planet.”

-modernization was the leading step towards innovation but junkspace as its contradictory.

-junkspace is residue that man left on the planet.

Themes

-Human debris

-Continuity

-Space

-Meaning

Human debris

What happens once these once architectural masterpieces have served their purpose?

“Old infrastructure identified as readable record, evidence of progress.” -Koolhaas

Continuity

Essence of junkspace

Regurgitation is the new creativity

Junkspace is escalation

Space

Occupied space

Structure becomes ornamental

Meaning

'Community'

-ballrooms, etc.

-abandoned establishments

-transparency???

Less

is

More

DISCUSSIONS